We invite you to take an online course:

Workshops for parents 2012

By John Tracy Clinic

The long distance education for parents by the John Tracy Clinic is designed for parents with children from birth until five years of age with hearing loss and neurosensory deafness. The specialized staff from the John Tracy Clinic guides and supports parents so they can help their children to develop hearing, language and speech.

This course consists of 6 workshops on the following dates:

Date:
- February 7
- February 21
- March 6
- March 20
- April 3
- April 24

Workshop:
- Hearing Aids and Cochlear implants
- Introduction to Hearing
- Introduction to Receptive Language
- Introduction to Expressive Language
- Introduction to Speech
- IFSP

This course will be online and hosted from Los Angeles. We will connect to these workshops every other Tuesday of the month and held at the Neighborhood House of Calexico (506 4th St) from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Childcare assistance will be provided these days with the exception of the workshop on February 7th.

Please RSVP to (760) 222-6359 or email: listenwithyourheart@live.com